NEW FRONTIERS

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

Are you interested in being a part of the Florida American Sign Language Teachers Association’s 2010 Annual Conference? FASLTA is seeking proposals for creative, exciting, and informative conference workshops that will broaden horizons, enrich experiences, and challenge participants. The theme of the Conference is “New Frontiers” and will be held in Tampa, Florida. We are expecting 100+ participants to be in attendance and would like to invite you to join us, February 12th-14th, as we continue to explore the practice of teaching ASL.

Participants at our annual conferences include Deaf, hard-of-hearing, and hearing individuals from Florida as well as other states who are currently teaching or interested in ASL instruction for foreign language, interpreting, or personal interest. All participants are expected to be fluent in ASL. All workshops will be conducted in ASL without voice interpretation. ASLTA professional development points and RID CEUs will be provided to participants. So are you interested? You are invited to submit workshop proposal which fits into our theme, “New Frontiers” The list below is not inclusive of all possible topics, we welcome your ideas as well. You may submit more than one proposal, however please be sure to use a separate form for each workshop. Workshop forms will be submitted electronically at <http://www.faslta.org/SubmitProposal.html>. The deadline for submission is November 15, 2009.
