

Florida American Sign Language Teachers Association

Welcomes

High School Teachers for the Deaf students, Interpreters and ASL students
To participate

ASL workshops

FASLTA Conference

Renaissance Tampa

International Plaza Hotel (Marriott)

4200 Jim Walter Blvd., Tampa, FL

Saturday, February 17, 2018

Participation adds interest.
Helps you to see another “voice”
as well as another point of view.

Cost: One workshop - $10

Two workshops - $15

18 years experience Deaf ASL instructor Mary Rogers will lead these two workshops.

2:15-3:15pm ASL in Mathematics

Participation can be used to develop important explicate skills.

Participation provides teacher feedback. You can correct (or help students correct) what students have not gotten right or do not see quite clearly.

4:30-5:30pm Classifiers Visualization Challenge

Participation engages students. Workshop can pique your interest, make you wonder why, get you to think, and motivate you to make connections with the contest.

The following evening ... celebrating 200 years of ASL

“For Your Eyes Only”

ASL Entertainer Dr. Byron Bridges

7pm - 9pm ... Open to Public ... $10 at door